

Greetings charming little one!

I shall give you reason,
to run outside in this winter season.

To see if you can find the key to finding me!

The first clue is hidden where there are winter berries.

For I am one of the winter fairies!

I have left you
some frozen fun,
so, don't be fickle.

Next run to the icicles

If you have the time,
next you will find
my dear little friend the gnome
down low,
who just might be
shoveling snow.

Hurry now, for it must be told that is getting a bit cold.
You just might find me
hiding behind a tree!

Congratulations my friend
you have found me
My name is Kae
and I would love it
if you invited me to stay.

MamaVILLAGE
Building generations of kindness